

Youth Housing Community Opening Spring 2021!

Youth Spirit Artworks' Tiny House Empowerment Village is a new long-term shelter program located at 633 Hegenberger Rd. in Oakland. This community is designed to support houseless transitional-aged youth in achieving their career, housing, and personal goals through community support and stable housing. Through a wellness-based youth-designed program, the Village environment will support and nurture residents while providing access to critical resources.

Being a part of this community is more than just living at the Village. All residents will also be a part Youth Spirit Artworks' core arts program located in Berkeley, where they will engage in a social justice-based art program and youth-led workshops around healthy interpersonal relationships, restorative justice, and more. Additionally, residents will be supported in developing a responsibility to the community at large, achieved through connections to local faith organizations and active involvement with local social justice projects.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Must be literally homeless, between the ages of 18-23, and identify either Berkeley or Oakland as home
- Must attend all weekly community meetings (at the Village) and case management sessions, which will be held at our art studio at 1740 Alcatraz Ave in Berkeley (both the Village and studio are located close to Bart stations and bus lines)
- Be willing to engage in restorative justice practices
- Be willing to contribute to building a safe and thriving community
- Practice nonviolent communication
- Be non-discriminatory and queer-affirming
- Actively participate in the art and job skills training program at our art studio in Berkeley for a minimum of 3-8 hours/week
- Be motivated to work towards your personal/vocational goals

Application Instructions:

- If you have never done a Coordinated Entry Assessment, please call (510) 613-0330 to do an assessment over the phone. If you leave a voice message, make sure to leave your callback number. We are unable to consider anyone who doesn't have a recent Coordinated Entry Assessment.
- Fill out an application (attached). Applications are being reviewed on a rolling basis, so it is best to submit your application as soon as possible. All eligible applicants will be contacted via phone for an interview. Submit application either by mail or in our drop box to:

Questions:

How do you define community? How do you envision yourself fitting into and contributing toward a larger community?

---

---

Being a part of the Tiny House Empowerment Village will mean more than just having a place to live. It will also mean having ongoing commitments to and responsibilities within your community. Do you feel that this is something you have the capacity to do at this time in your life? Do you have any concerns or foresee any personal challenges about being a part of a community like this?

---

What are your goals for the coming year? What have you already done in order to reach these goals?

---

---

What type of support do you need to reach your goals?

---

---

The Tiny House Empowerment Village will give residents access to a lot of opportunities for personal and professional growth and skill building, including access to training and mentorship in the following areas: artmaking, art entrepreneurship and sales, nonprofit management, gardening, sewing, professional medical skills, music, biking and exercise, cooking, construction, and more. Do any of the aforementioned areas interest you? Please list any and all other skills that you're interested in exploring or learning more about.

Housing Information:

As part of the Housing Agreement, all residents of the Tiny House Empowerment Village will be required to pay 30% of their current monthly income as rent. This is intended to be affordable for anyone with any income. If you do not have any income, we will help you apply for General Assistance. You will also be paid $175 a month to participate in YSA's core arts program, and this will count as income as well. Is paying 30% of your income toward rent something you feel you have the capacity to do?

Yes _____ No _____

Where did you sleep last night? _____

Where have you been staying this past month? _____

Have you ever stayed in any transitional housing programs? If so, which ones?

Have you ever paid rent before? If so, how much and at what type of place were you living?

---

Have you ever had permanent housing since leaving your childhood home/place of residence?

---

Have you ever lived with roommates? If so, can you share a bit about how that went for you?

---

---

Do you currently have a place to stay with a roof over your head (even if it's not an ideal situation) that you're not actively being forced to leave?

---

Please list the last few places you've lived or stayed (ie. shelters, programs, friend's houses, permanent housing, etc.):

Dates:	Type of residence (include names if possible):

Schedule/Availability:

All residents will be expected to participate in our art and job skills building program, which involves attending weekly community zoom meetings, and participating in art projects during studio hours. Do you feel you have the capacity to do this at this time in your life?

Yes _____ No _____

As part of the Housing Agreement, all residents of the Tiny House Empowerment Village will be expected to participate in YSA's core arts program workshops for a minimum of between 3 and 8 hours per week (depending on employment and school commitments).
